Serving God and the community in Chichester

NINTH SUNDAY OF TRINITY

28 July 2024

Dear friends,

As we head into the summer period in earnest, here is a poem by the American poet, novelist and environmentalist Wendell Berry, someone who celebrates the beauty and miraculous of the often overlooked everyday things and the holiness of life and the natural world.

The Peace of Wild Things

When despair grows in me and I wake in the night at the least sound in fear of what my life and my children's lives may be, I go and lie down where the wood drake rests in his beauty on the water, and the great heron feeds.
I come into the peace of wild things who do not tax their lives with forethought of grief. I come into the presence of still water.
And I feel above me the day-blind stars waiting for their light. For a time I rest in the grace of the world, and am free.

With my prayers and blessings,

Fr Angus
